THE TOTAL NUMBERS AT THE 1988 SYMBEL REUNION WERE 120 FOR DINNER PLUS 2 WHO WERE NOT ABLE TO STAY. THERE WAS A GROUP PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN BY THE N/HAN/PAW 'ECHO', A COPY OF WHICH YOU MAY HAVE FROM ME, ONCE I HAVE RECEIVED A COPY FROM THE NEWSPAPER OFFICES.

From THE CHRONICLE AND ECHO NORTHAMPTON 28-09-1988
 Sgt. David Forer-Hayes, 1st Battalion, The Buffs, stands with his fellow prisoners of war, Capt. John Lynch, Capt. Ernest Morgan, and Capt. Daniel Young, who were held in the same camp in Lithuania. They are standing with their families and friends.

PoW reunited with old pals

MORE than 40 years after his release from a German prisoner of war camp in Lithuania, Northampton veterans Sgt. David Forer-Hayes has been reunited for the first time with friends from those brutal days.

At Srebri Airport he has met 42 other former inmates of the camp, which held 1,000 British soldiers throughout World War Two.

Sgt. Forer-Hayes, 57, is a former Captain in the Buffs, and was held in the camp from 1941 to 1945. He was one of the few who survived the camp.

The reunion was held at the Srebri Airport, which was the site of the camp. The camp was built by the Germans and was used to hold British soldiers who were captured during the war.

The reunion was a very emotional event. The men who were held in the camp for so long were able to see their friends and families for the first time. They were also able to see the camp where they were held.

Prisoners of war converge for reunion

DAVID FORER-HAYES and his fellow prisoners of war converged on Srebri Airport for a reunion. The reunion was held at the Srebri Airport, which was the site of the camp. The camp was built by the Germans and was used to hold British soldiers who were captured during the war.

The reunion was a very emotional event. The men who were held in the camp for so long were able to see their friends and families for the first time. They were also able to see the camp where they were held.
